

MICHAEL HOWARD STUDIOS

The Professional Acting Studio for Theater, Film, and Television

Summer Conservatory

The Summer Conservatory is a great place for actors that have received training, but feel the need for an intensive “bootcamp” to get things back in focus in a short amount of time. It also serves as a bridge for those that are passionate about the craft but haven’t yet done intensive training, and want to commit to a short term and compelling somatic approach to the craft of acting.

Engaging in integrated systems that work on the fundamentals of acting – Impulse, voice, physicality, intellect – the Summer Conservatory provides a safe place to investigate your passion while revealing what it takes to approach this business seriously.

Elements of the Summer Conservatory are as follows:

Acting For Film & TV	Improvisation
Audition Technique	Impulsive Voice
Alexander Technique	Movement for the Actor
Business of Acting	Scene Study
Clown	Script Analysis
Creating Your Own Work	Storytelling
Heightened Text/Shakespeare	Yoga

The Summer Conservatory consists of daily studio instruction combined with rehearsals. Classes run from 9 AM to 5 PM weekdays over the course of six (6) weeks. There is a broad collection of approaches to spark the actors’ creativity, and engage them in as many concepts as possible. Best efforts are made to provide all of the topics above. If our specialty faculty of working professionals is pulled away, substitutes provide another form of study and creativity.
